
Vestry Person of the Day: David Schrantz

The Word of God

The Opening Acclamation and the Collect for Purity

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Kyrie eleison

Celebrant Lord, have mercy.

People Christ, have mercy

Celebrant Lord, have mercy.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, whose Son our Savior Jesus Christ is the light of the world: Grant that your people, illumined by your Word and Sacraments, may shine with the radiance of Christ's glory, that he may be known, worshipped, and obeyed to the ends of the earth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Lesson.....1 Corinthians 12:1-11

Now concerning spiritual gifts, brothers and sisters, I do not want you to be uninformed. You know that when you were pagans, you were enticed and led astray to idols that could not speak. Therefore I want you to understand that no one speaking by the Spirit of God ever says "Let Jesus be cursed!" and no one can say "Jesus is Lord" except by the Holy Spirit.

Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel John 2:1-11

Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." Now standing there were six stone water jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to them, "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them up to the brim. He said to them, "Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward." So they took it. When the steward tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now." Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon The Rev. Canon Luchy Littlejohn

The Nicene Creed

*We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.*

*We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.*

*Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.*

*For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.*

*On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven*

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

*He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.*

*We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.*

The Prayers of the People, Form III

The people remain standing or kneel

Reader Father, we pray for your holy Catholic Church;

People That we all may be one.

Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you;
That your Name may be glorified by all people.

We pray for all bishops, priests and deacons.
That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and Sacraments.

We pray for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world;
That there may be justice and peace on the earth.

Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;
That our works may find favor in your sight.

Have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble;
That they may be delivered from their distress.

Give to the departed eternal rest.
Let light perpetual shine upon them.

We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;
May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

Let us pray for our own needs and those of others.

The Celebrant adds a concluding Collect.

Confession of Sin

Minister Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

After a moment of silence, the Priest and the People say:

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,

*have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.*

The Celebrant declares God's forgiveness.

The Exchange of Peace

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

We take this time to greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Announcements

The Holy Communion

The Offertory

The Great Thanksgiving, Eucharistic Prayer B

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

The Celebrant continues

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

Here a Proper Preface is said.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

All Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

The people may stand or kneel. Then the Celebrant continues

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

We remember his death,

We proclaim his resurrection,

We await his coming in glory;

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven,

hallowed be thy Name,

thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,

for ever and ever. Amen.

Breaking of the Bread

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God...

The Sharing of Holy Communion

The People come forward to receive the Sacrament.

In this phase of our shared worship life, the Sacrament is offered in one kind only: wafers (including gluten-free wafers) will be offered, but not wine.

The Postcommunion Prayer

Celebrant Let us pray.

All Eternal God, heavenly Father,
you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food
in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Celebrant declares God's blessing on the People.

A Minister dismisses the People, and the People respond, "Thanks be to God."

Altar flowers are given to the Glory of Almighty God
by Carlisle & Jack Spalten
in celebration of their marriage yesterday.

NEW VESTRY CLASS

Members of the Vestry Nominating Committee have been working this fall to identify candidates for election to the Vestry at next month's Annual Parish Meeting. We are pleased to present this year's slate of five nominees for the 2022 - 2025 Vestry, Jennifer Kelley, David Chidgey, Roberta Kidder, R. Wesley Graham, DDS, and Charlie Alfaro. We will vote on the slate of nominees at our annual Parish meeting in late January. You can learn more about our nominees, on our website, SLECSA.ORG.

JENNIFER R. KELLEY

I am a baptized and confirmed Episcopalian who has enjoyed attending St. Luke's Episcopal Church for 21 years. I work as a Licensed Clinical Social Worker at the South Texas Veterans Health Care System in the Polytrauma Rehabilitation Center. At St. Luke's, I have served on the Ministries Committee which organizes the Salvation Army Christmas Angels and Good Samaritan Christmas Bags Ministries. In addition, I have participated in the Under the Bridge Ministries, Wednesday Evening Classes, Lenten Dinner and Women's Bible Study. In addition, I am a member of the St. Luke's Chapter of the Order of The Daughters of The King. Of note, while a student at Spelman College, I worked at the Absalom Jones Episcopal Student Center & Chapel for 3 years.

I love how St. Luke's Church works hard to meet the needs of every parishioner in each stage of their life. Whether an infant, child young adult, adult or elder, there is a ministry that is just for you. I attend St. Luke's with my parents, Dr. Harmon & Harriet Kelley and Sister, Dr. Margaret A. Kelley. Thank you for your consideration; it would be an honor and privilege to serve on the St. Luke's Episcopal Church Vestry.

CHARLIE ALFARO

During the 25 years that I have been a member of St Luke's I have seen a lot of change and growth in our parish. As part of the St Luke's family, I have helped serve Wednesday Night Dinners; lead an acolyte team; been an usher and a Eucharistic Minister. I have watched my daughters be baptized, take First Communion, & be confirmed. My fondest personal memories are of my own Confirmation; Cursillo; and especially my wedding to my wife Elizabeth in 2015. I have also had the honor of serving as verger for over 15 years. I welcome the opportunity to take this next step in helping guide the future of St Luke's.

WES GRAHAM

I have been involved with the Episcopal Church for over 45 years, part of this with Resurrection EC and the last 9 years at St Luke's EC. I am better known as Marquel McCabe's dad. I have been on vestries, sung in choirs, been a treasurer of a church school, an LEM, and even repaired a pipe organ at Resurrection. I love attending St Luke's with my family and consider St Luke's an extended family. I work full time with my daughter and we consider this a daily ministry of the church in practicing Dentistry for our patients.

DAVID CHIDGEY

My first memory of St. Luke's is around age four when I was baptized along with my two brothers. I have so many good memories growing up at St. Luke's, attending

Sunday school and actually first grade too, singing in the children's choir, and being an acolyte before leaving to help start The Church of the Resurrection.

Years later I would return to St. Luke's with my wife, Denise, and our young daughters, Brooke and Sarah. Soon I joined the Luke team and became a lector and Eucharistic minister. More recently, I was part of the team for the two St. Luke's Live events. And now you can usually find us at the 9:00 contemporary service where I frequently read the lesson or lead the prayers.

Why is St. Luke's a special place in my heart? Although the church building provides a beautiful setting for worship, it really is the people in the congregation and the staff who make it such a welcoming and positive place. In turn, it is a great place for learning, gaining spiritual understanding, and serving the Lord Our God.

ROBERTA KIDDER

Roberta Kidder has been a member of St. Luke's since 2016. Her various church ministries include: captain of the Usher guild, captain of team three on the Altar guild, a loyal and dedicated member of the "Saturday crew" at the Green Door and participates in our young adult small group. In the past Roberta has served on the stewardship committee, invite, welcome connect committee, taught Sunday school for adults and middle school, served refreshments after services and funerals and been part of multiple Amigos groups. Roberta is a project lead for a government contracting company, specializing in IT modernization and Cloud migrations and is a proud US Air Force Reservist.

CONNECT WITH ST. LUKE'S

Thank you for joining us today. If you are new to St. Luke's, please visit slecsa.org/im-new/ or scan the QR Code to fill out our online Welcome Card to learn more about St. Luke's Episcopal Church.

BUDGET REVIEW MEETING

This Sunday, January 23rd, church leadership will present the 2022 Operating Budget as approved by the church's Finance Committee. Join us in the Large Conference Room from, please note the time change, 10 AM - 10:45 AM for the presentation.

ANNUAL PARISH MEETING

The Annual Parish Meeting will take place on Sunday, January 30th, after our 11 AM Worship Service. We will meet in the church for this year's meeting. The Annual Report will be available in print and in electronic format for your review before the meeting.

ALTAR FLOWERS FOR 2022

Many people have special days during the year which they commemorate. Flowers on the altar of St. Luke's Church can mark the anniversary of a birth, baptism, confirmation, marriage, death, or be used as an expression of the joy of thanksgiving at any time.

Your donation of $75 for Altar Flowers helps offset the cost of Altar flowers, and your flower dedication is printed in the Sunday bulletin and is listed on our Sunday Livestream. Visit SLECSA.ORG or e-mail clergysec@stlukes-sa.net to sign-up to reserve Altar Flowers for 2022! Pick the Sunday you would like to sponsor and drop off your flower donation in the offering plate, bring or mail it to the church office, or make an online payment on our website.

All submissions must be in by the Wednesday before your desired date to make our printing deadline for the Sunday bulletins. Multiple dedications can be received for a Sunday to allow everyone in the congregation to honor their loved ones and family celebrations.

LUNCH BUNCH MEETING UPDATE

St. Luke's Lunch Bunch January meeting has been canceled after careful consideration and out of an abundance of caution in light of the rapid spread of the Omicron variant in San Antonio.

Paula Allen has graciously agreed to join us for our April 18th gathering to share the history of Camp Capers with us.

CLASSES FOR ADULTS

Join us this Sunday for a presentation on This Far by Faith, the online pilgrimage hosted by St. Luke's last summer. The pilgrimage virtually walked the entire distance of the Diocese of West Texas, and "visited" each parish, learned about its history, and then something related to social justice and social reform in that town. Reagan and Bryan Gonzalez will be co-leading this presentation, and we invite you to come to learn more, debrief your thoughts if you walked the pilgrimage, and find out how you can walk it on your own this year. We will meet in the Large Conference Room at 10 AM.

MLK DAY ONE DAY PILGRIMAGE

This year's MLK Day March has been canceled but Rev. Reagan is putting together a special mini-pilgrimage you can do with your family on Monday, January 17th. She will have prayers and journal prompts for you to reflect on your walk.

If you missed the virtual pilgrimage this summer, you can read all the blog posts at SLECSA.ORG/this-far-by-faith/.

YOUTH CONFIRMATION CLASS 2022

Join Hannah this Sunday, January 16th for an information session about the Confirmation curriculum, from 10-10:50 AM in the youth room. This overview will include course expectations for both the students and parents. This is a great time for you as a parent to let me know any questions or concerns you may have concerning the confirmation schedule or any of the lesson topics.

Several changes have taken place since I sent out the original interest form. We have moved our retreat to join a diocese-led retreat for students being confirmed that will be held on March 11th - 13th. This option is both cheaper and longer! It will also give the students a chance to connect with youth from other churches in their community.

Confirmation Classes will officially begin on January 23rd and last until April 10th. Classes will be from 10 AM -10:50 and will take place in the youth room. Even if you haven't filled out the survey and want to see what confirmation is all about, I encourage you to attend the information session on January 16th!

If you aren't able to attend the information session but would still like to find out more information or are interested in helping these students on their journey of faith, please email hannahb@stlukes-sa.net for more information on how you can be involved in this rewarding process.

Rev. Reagan will begin leading an Inquirer's Class for adults interested in being confirmed beginning on February 6th during the 10 AM hour. If you would like to learn more about Adult confirmation classes e-mail Rev. Reagan!
